

New Customer FAQ

We appreciate your interest in Rhythm & Motion Dance Center and thank you for having your dancer try our classes! Below are some questions that many new customers have for us:

Other than tuition, what fees are due during the year?

When you sign up there is a one-time $25 ($35 for families) registration fee. If your dancer decides to take some time off and then come back again, the registration fee would not need to be paid again. If your dancer decides to participate in recital, there is a $50 recital fee due each recital. The recital fee comes with 2 free recital tickets. Additional tickets can be purchased for $15/ea.

Do I need to re-register for classes each year?

Our classes are ongoing. If we do not hear from you, we will assume your dancer is continuing to dance with us. However, if your dancer is in our Combo dance program, it is highly recommended that select which class your dancer will be taking during the Summer & Fall sessions. Due to the young age of our Combo dancers, we only allow a certain number of students in those classes and will put additional dancers on the waitlist for classes that are full.

If my dancer is interested in performing in recital, what are the costume fees?

Our costumes range from $50 - $75 on average. The costumes we choose are fun and age-appropriate. These are not rented costumes and you get to keep them. We encourage you to look at our costume board for some examples of what we choose. In addition to the costume, the dancer will need to purchase tights and appropriate dance shoes.

How many recitals are there during the year?

We have 2 recital dates per year, 1 in June and 1 in December. Our Winter recitals will be on Dec 21st and we are shooting for June 13th for our Summer recitals. All will be held at Highland High School. We have 2 shows per recital day and not every class will participate in each recital or in both Summer and Winter recital. For class specifics, please check with the Front Desk.
